And The Rockets Red Glare ...

On Friday, November 13, 1998, a new American Flag was raised on a new flag pole in front of the Huron Township Hall. VFW Post 6040 donated the flag to Huron Township.

The ceremonies were conducted by Post 6040 members Joe Prater, Lou Gibbs, Jack McBain, John Haapapuro, Frank Goyette and Township Supervisor David Glaab.

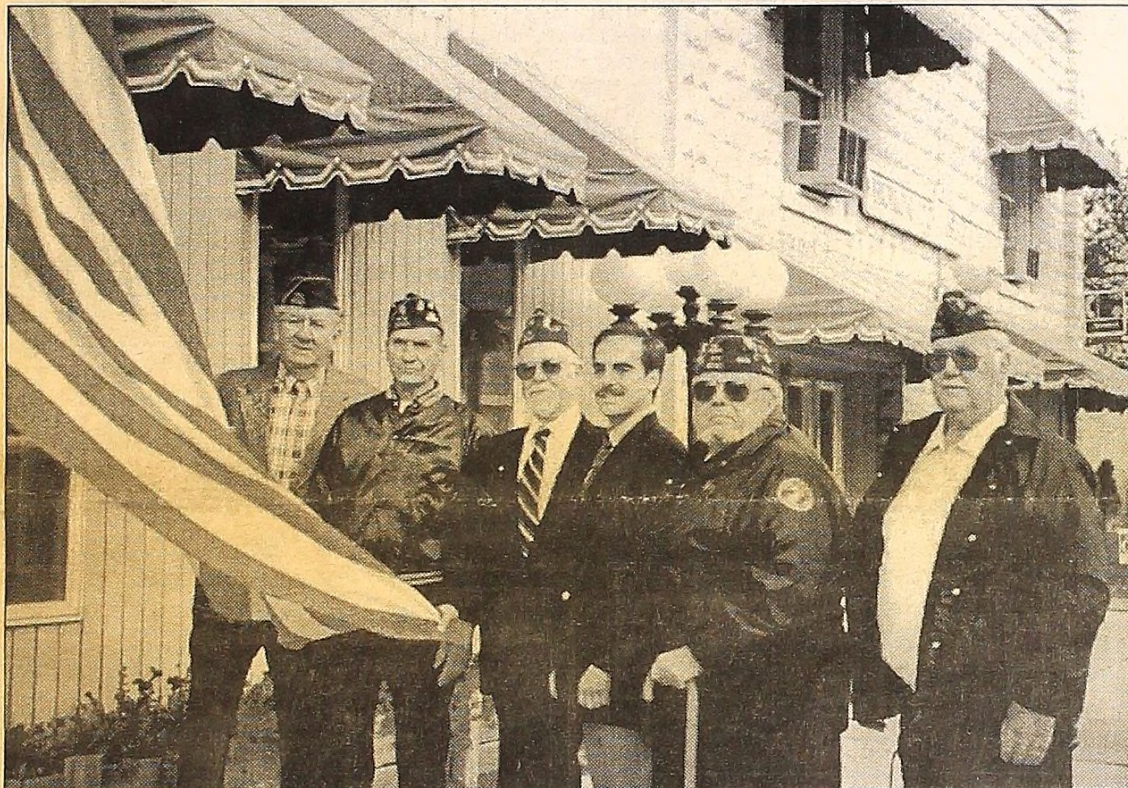

The flag raising was scheduled during the week of Veteran's Day, in order to honor the Veterans in our community for their unconditional service to our country and its citizens.

We must be thankful every day for each and every one of them for helping to secure our safety, guarantee our freedom, and keep our children and grandchildren from war.

Hiring Part-Time Dispatcher Postponed

by LARRY O'KELLEY
Freelance Writer

At the November 11th township board meeting, the hiring of a part-time dispatcher was delayed because of a question regarding hiring procedure. Treasurer Adkins made a motion to table the matter because he was uncomfortable with the prospect that the job was not posted by advertisement. Adkins further directed the police chief, in his motion, to seek more applicants and follow the policy that applied to the hiring of employees.

There was several board members that spoke of the word "shall" in the policy rather than "must" and seemed to suggest that the word "shall" gave more discretion than the word "must" when it came to advertising the posting.

Trustee Adkins advised the board that she remembers, when looking at this policy earlier in their term, that there was considerable discussion on the use of "shall" or "must" and it was agreed that "must"

was too harsh of a word.

Trustee Glaab indicated he did not want to "micro-manage" the police department and the word "shall" was more flexible than the word "must." He seemed prepared to accept the recommendation of the police chief but was willing to postpone the matter if the Treasurer felt it was important to do so.

The supervisor advised the board that a committee did hold interviews and tested the applicants and that he also was comfortable with the chief's recommendation. The supervisor allowed employee Ms. Krause to speak to the board and she advised that five people actually applied but that two did not show up for the written test and one of the remaining three did not show up for the oral exam.

She urged the board to hire somebody because of the amount of overtime that was currently being paid. However, she also emphasized that policy and procedures must be followed. While she did not address the issue of whether proper procedure was followed, she confirmed the interview board consisted of the supervisor, clerk, a police lieutenant and her. She also seemed comfortable with the process.

So, it appears the board is convinced that at least one part-time dispatcher is needed and will eventually be hired. However, prompted by the treasurer's concerns, agreed to re-post the position and advertise the position. It is hoped that this will result in more applicants.

In other board business the supervisor recommended that Terry Nichols be appointed to the Telecommunications Commission and also recommended that Larry Kittle be reappointed to the Historical Commission. Both recommendations were approved by the board.

Georgette Heron-Willoughby

This week I decided to give you an easy 30-minute soup recipe that you can make with leftover chicken and fresh vegetables.

Many of you may have heard of Mulligatawny soup and some of you may have tried it. Mulligatawny means "pepper water" and it was first eaten by British and Scottish soldiers who were serving in India. This soup is flavored with curry powder. By sauteing the curry powder it brings out the flavor.

Because it is so easy and most of the ingredients are on hand this is one of those meals that you can serve to unexpected guests that show up during the holidays.

Please let me know how I'm doing with the column or if you have any questions, contact: The Huron River Weekly - Al Fresco, P.O. Box 472, New Boston, MI 48164 or fax 734-753-4417.

Mulligatawny Soup

1/3 Cup Onion (finely chopped)	4 Cups Chicken Broth
1/2 Tsp. Curry Powder	115-Oz. Can Diced Tomatoes
2 Tbs. Veg. Oil	1 Tbs. Parsley (fresh chopped or crushed dried)
1 Cup Cooked Chicken (diced)	2 Tsp. Lemon Juice
1 Tart Apple (peeled, cored & chopped)	1 Tsp. Sugar
1/4 Cup Carrot (chopped)	1/4 Tsp. Ground Cloves
1/4 Cup Celery (chopped)	1/4-1/2 Tsp. Salt
3 Tbs. Green Pepper (chopped)	Freshly Ground Pepper
3 Tbs. Flour

In a soup pot, saute onion and curry powder in the vegetable oil, until tender. Stir in chicken, apple, carrots, celery and green pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, till vegetables are tender crisp, about 5 minutes. Sprinkle flour over chicken-vegetable mixture; stir to mix well. Stir in chicken broth, tomatoes, parsley, lemon juice, sugar, cloves, salt and pepper. Bring to boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce and simmer, covered 30 minutes.

Serves six

At 4:30 a.m. on the 12th of April 1861, General Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard directed his Confederate gunners to open fire on Fort Sumter, at that hour only a dark shape out in Charleston harbor. 34 hours later a white flag over the fort ended the bombardment. The only casualty was a Confederate horse. It was a bloodless opening to the bloodiest war in American history.

With the outbreak of the Civil War found the national administration poorly prepared for conflict there was no hesitation in response of the loyal states.

On April 2, 1861, Governor Blair, to be ready for any emergency, issued a proclamation calling the Legislature to meet in extra session on May 4, 1861. Before the time came for the Legislature to convene under this call, Fort Sumter had fallen and the whole country was ablaze with patriotism. Immediately after the President's call for 75,000 volunteers, the secretary of war sent to the governors of the loyal states a statement of the quote of troops each would be expected to furnish. Michigan was called upon for ten companies of infantry (one regiment). On April 16, 1861, Governor Blair issued his proclamation calling for volunteers and directing the adjutant-general to accept the first ten companies offered.

The same day the governor visited Detroit and met a number of the city's representative citizens at the Michigan Exchange Hotel. He explained that the state had been called upon for one infantry regiment "Fully armed, clothed and equipped," that the sum of $100,000 was necessary to comply with this demand, and that the state was without funds immediately available for the purpose. A resolution was adopted pledging the business interests of Detroit to loan the state $50,000 and calling upon the citizens of the state to raise a similar amount.

The words soared across the state of Michigan, the citizens answer with volunteers and fund for the war. Michigan did it by sending; 14 Regiments of Infantry, seven Regiments of Cavalry, six Battery of Artillery, two Companies of Sharpshooters, and two Companies of Provost Guard.

Volunteers from our township service in unit like those list;

Michigan Infantry units, 4th, 6th, 7th, 11th, 15th, 22nd, 24th, and 27th. Michigan Artillery unit: 1st and 6th. Michigan Cavalry unit: 1st, and 7th. United States Infantry unit 16th. Other units lists by Civil war veteran are Ohio Volunteer's Infantry, New York Volunteer's Infantry, and New York Artillery.

The Units above are credit several battle and victory. The volunteer's and unit return to Michigan, with a score of battlefield steamers. Battlefield that our volunteer's seen were: Peninsular Campaign of 1862, Williamsburg, Pittsburg Landing, Fredricksburg, Gettysburg, Shenandoah Valley, Cedar Creek, the second Bull Run, and Little Round Top.

A few of those brave souls spent time in a place not fit to live in, Andersonville.

The list of our volunteers are as follows: G. Kipp, C. Mathews, S. Felt, B. Smith, J. Maes, Wm. Graves, C. Johnson, J. Ferstill, A. VanRiper, N. Graden, R. Outwaite, L. Harris, D. Cline, J. Hale, W. Nowland, S. Winnie, G. Potts, M. Harris, M. Ellis, G. Burk, H. Smith, J. Bailey, S. Smith, H. Lobdell, I. Biddlecomb, T. Sherman, J. Brining, H. Bell, H. Arnold, H. Stoflet, G. Eldred, F. Hamelton, C. Brow, H. Brandes, H. Moses, C. Durfee, N. Parret, Wm. Hendrick, Wm. Dean, S. Rice, A. Hemily, C. Bennett, C. LaForge, and N. Colburn.

The records of the Civil War are not easy to make a 100-percent list. If I miss some of the veterans, it's due to the records.

In no way was my idea to glorify one of the bloodiest part of our history it's just fact.

BOO! BOO! BOO!

Halloween, 1998, the Huron Township Recreation Event was a Boo-tiful thing. The Anetzberger family outdid themselves again this year.

The project gets bigger and better every year. There were 12 large displays and several small ones and both children and the "big" children enjoy the event each year.

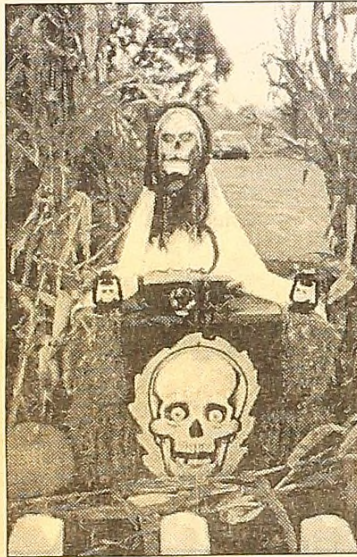

Set up takes at least two days and is done by the Anetzberger extended family; Terry, Mike, Kim, Jeff, Kathi and Mike. "Hats off" to this special family for giving us an extra-scary Halloween.

There were 35 to 40 pumpkins carved. Some were donated by the Hoagland family and some were carved by St. Stephen's eighth grade class. The rest were completed by the family.

Approximately 300 to 400 children passed by (judging by the candy given away).

A special thank you to Individual Financial Planning, Marketing Partners and State Farm Insurance for the use of their property and to the businesses in town that were open for trick or treating.
